

HHFB Partner Food Pantries

Our partner food pantries serve anyone needing free groceries. Some pantries may require you to meet income guidelines to receive some items, but they can provide other items regardless of your situation. Food pantries vary in size and selection.

HHFB Partner Community Kitchens

Our partner on-site feeding programs serve meals and snacks you can eat there or take home. Some also offer shelter. This brochure shows agencies open to the public. Our other on-site feeding partners include daycares, youth programs, and group homes.

Commodity Supplemental Food Program for Seniors

If you are over 60 years old and meet income guidelines, you may qualify to get a monthly box of food providing protein, calcium, iron, and vitamins. Contact Dave at HHFB at 812-334-8374 or foodprogram@hhfoodbank.org.

Federal SNAP Benefits

You and your family may be eligible to receive SNAP benefits (formerly known as food stamps). Only 60% of eligible people take advantage of this program. Even if you have a job, you may qualify.

Go to <http://www.fssabenefits.in.gov> or get help applying by contacting Michelle at 812-334-8374 or snap@hhfoodbank.org.

Hungry? You are not alone.

Every day in the United States, about one out of six people has to make difficult choices about basic necessities – food, shelter, healthcare, and childcare. About 50,000 people in HHFB’s service area get food assistance each month. South central Indiana has dozens of free feeding programs to serve people like you. Just turn the page

Hoosier Hills Food Bank

We are a non-profit corporation dedicated to the elimination of hunger in south central Indiana. With the help of donors and volunteers, we rescue and store foods and provide them to about 100 Agency Partners in Brown, Lawrence, Martin, Monroe, Owen, and Orange Counties. Our agencies serve people who are ill, needy, or minor children.

Dial 2-1-1 for Social Services

For help with food, shelter, clothing, childcare, transportation, legal services, education, employment, health care, and substance abuse

HHFB is an equal opportunity employer. About 11% of our funding comes from federal government sources, and about 82% of total funding comes from non-governmental sources.
